Do you need to make a new Will?
In case anything should happen to you, have you made provision for the care of your children in your Will?

Unless you do, there is no guarantee they would be cared for by someone of your choice.

Pastor Mark's Blog – January 27th

Have you ever felt like running away from something? Physically, emotionally or even mentally. We read in Genesis 16 about Hagar conceiving a child and then running away from Sarah because she was treated very harshly. Jealousy can do that. Talk about a blended family situation. The Angel of the Lord then appears to Hagar in the desert and speaks words of comfort, encouragement and hope to her.

It is a moment that transforms Hagar's relationship with the Lord and causes her to name that place Beer-lahai-roi, "the God who Sees". The Lord gives her son the name, Ishmael, which means "the God that Hears". What beautiful names and what a beautiful interaction between the Lord and Hagar. So, from this experience Hagar learns that God sees, God listens and that He is for her and not against her. That is a message equally for us today.
