

Have you made a Will?
Do you need to make a new Will?
In case anything should happen to you, have you made provision for the care of your children in your Will?

Unless you do, there is no guarantee they would be cared for by someone of your choice.

Did you know that the Church provides a FREE confidential Will-making service without obligation for its members?

Pastor Mark's Blog – February 3rd

“And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going.” John 14:3–4 (ESV)

As many of you know Jim Frost fell asleep in the Lord early Wednesday morning. Norma and I heard many accounts of Jim and time and time again the above scripture was quoted. I only saw Jim in the last days of his life, I wish I could have known him more. We all send condolences to his wife, Joan, and to all the family.

Jim's hope for the future embodies all of our hopes for the future. It is about a place, a wonderful place. But even more, it is about a person, a wonderful person, who loves us and knows us better than we know ourselves. It is about being face to face with our Lord, forever. There is no better picture of an intimate relationship. What a hope and what a future!
