Pastor Mark's Blog

Last Sabbath, Norma and I attended the British Union Pastoral Conference held from Friday 3rd until Monday 6th of May near Coventry. This extended weekend gave ministers and families the unique opportunity to fellowship, socialise and be spiritually recharged. We very much enjoyed the time especially after returning from a trip to California that turned into a "working holiday".

The rest of this month and June, we will be going through our nominations for church positions. I encourage everyone to be open and pray about it. Please let us know if you are interested in serving in a particular position. Given the size of our churches we benefit greatly from everyone helping and serving.

We will begin the Daniel Seminar in Lowestoft on June 8th. This is a great opportunity for the community and the church. Please pray for this campaign.
