Pastor Mark's Blog

As I write this blog, Norma and I are on a British Airways flight on our way back from San Francisco to London, flying at 35000 feet at 600 mph. I am sitting in seat 36D. When we experience rough air, that dreaded turbulence, I find myself trying to fly the plane from 36D, saying, go higher, or slow down, or go lower. Just do something to get out of this rough air.

I always appreciate the calm voice of the Captain or Cabin Crew as they tell us to make sure our seat belts are fastened tightly and to stay seated, till we clear the rough air, as smoother air is not that far away. It is calming and reassuring.

The promise God has given us through His word is that He will make all things right in His time (Ecclesiastes 3:11). This calls for the patience of the Saints, especially in the face of injustice. Patience is one of the most difficult fruits for us to cultivate while in this world.
