Have You Made a Will? Do You Need to Revise a Current Will?

Have you made provision for the care of your children in case you die? Are you aware that unless you appoint legal guardians for your children, the authorities could place them into the care of those you may not approve? No matter what your circumstances, it is advisable to make a Will. Everyone should have a Will for peace of mind!

Pastor Mark's Blog

The above quote is taken from John 14:31. Jesus is speaking to His disciples after the Passover meal. Right before these words, Jesus says “as the Father gave Me commandment, so I do.” Commandment is singular! The context makes it clear that Jesus is talking about the completion of His mission as the Father’s will for Him. Then He says, “Arise, let us go from here”.

There are times to wait on the Lord, but we dare not wait when the Lord has clearly commanded. Then we are to go out and obey what He has said.

“Then the kingdom and dominion,
and the great- ness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him”
