Pastor Mark's Blog

Thursday, this week, as you may know, was Thanksgiving Day in the USA. During our time living in the States, this became our favourite holiday of the year. All the family came together. Talking to our daughter on Thanksgiving Day, she said the same. We were also able to FaceTime with our son. A real blessing of modern days.

Psalms 107 starts with "O Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endureth for ever". There are times when our feelings have to follow our faith, not the other way around. We can feel like not doing something, but Faith says I will do it anyway. We hope over time our feelings and our emotions will catch up with our faith. But faith, most times, must lead the way!
