Pastor Mark's Blog

In Philippians 1:20, the Apostle Paul writes, “according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death.”

You may be the type that likes to set new year's goals, maybe not. I am mostly not, but one thing I do each new year is decide on my daily devotional book for that coming year. The book I chose for this year started with the above text as the goal for the life of the follower of Jesus. Norma and I wish you every blessing in 2020! Let us not be ashamed but magnify the Lord!
