Pastor Mark's Blog

“Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve my life; you stretch out your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and your right hand delivers me. The Lord will fulfill his purpose for me; your steadfast love, O Lord, endures forever. Do not forsake the work of your hands.”
Psalm 138:7-8 ESV
#dailyverse

The above verses are taken from Psalm 138, a Psalm of David. It is true that the Lord can calm the “storms” in our lives, but most times the Lord seeks to first calm his child in the midst of the storm.

King David utters his personal confidence in Jehovah, who will help his servant, and preserve him from all the malice of foes. Unexpected help shall come to us when affairs are at their worst. Let us learn from our Master to reckon upon forces invisible.

Have You Made a Will?

Do You Need to Revise a Current Will?
Have you made provision for the care of your children in case you die?

Are you aware that unless you appoint legal guardians for your children, the authorities
