Have You Made a Will? Do You Need to Revise a Current Will?

Have you made provision for the care of your children in case you die? Are you aware that unless you appoint legal guardians for your children, the authorities could place them into the care of those you may not approve? No matter what your circumstances, it is advisable to make a Will. Everyone should have a Will for peace of mind!

Pastor Mark's Blog

“Christ’s method alone will give true success in reaching the people. The Saviour mingled with people as one who desired their good. He showed sympathy for them, ministered to their needs, and won their confidence. Then He invited them, “Follow Me.””

This week I was down in Watford attending the Workers Meeting for the South England Conference. It included a report from the recent Evangelism Expo held at Newbold College where the high-level focus for the next four years was presented and discussed. That focus revolves around Discipleship and the Community. If you like, “Be Disciples and Make Disciples”.

This afternoon, as part of our Church Family Fellowship at Great Yarmouth we will together see the Video from that Expo that kicked off the meeting and set the tone for the meeting. The question I would suggest we need to ask is what does this mean for our local church and for me?
